ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Bilal Nazki,)

This Writ Petition has been filed by a retired Judicial Officer seeking refund of the amount spent by him on medical expenses.

Petitioner is a retired Judicial Officer, and according to him, he underwent some surgery in Care Hospital and was discharged on 06-10-2003. He applied for re-imbursement and he was sanctioned an amount of Rs.60,000/-. Now, he claims that he had spent an amount of Rs.1,22,260/-, therefore, he is entitled to reimbursement of the balance amount. For the last two years, the petitioner has not approached either the Court or the Government. The delay is not explained. Only it is stated that in 2004, he made an application to the High Court.

In this view of the matter, the Writ Petition is dismissed for laches. No costs.
